

Job profile: Head - Production

Lucent CleanEnergy is the next generation renewable energy company providing high quality materials to solar energy industry, using state of the art technology and research.

Summary

Experience: 5 years

Location: Changodar, Ahmedabad

Compensation: Discussed during interview

Education: UG - B.Tech/B.E. (Plastics) PG - {Preferred}

Industry Type: Film extrusion

Role: Production Manager

Functional Area: Production, Maintenance, Quality control

Candidate profile

Min. 5 years experience with degree in plastics/polymer engineering. Candidate should have experience preferably in sheet/film extrusion and worked in production management experience.

Roles and responsibilities

Responsible for efficient operation and management of production with emphasis on productivity, quality and cost effectiveness. Continuous monitoring of line and its various parameters.

Responsible for achieving optimum productivity on production floor and ensure production schedule and targets are met on daily basis

Liase with customers on their requirements & quality issues. Maintaining the documents as per QMS and ISO standards

Managing and supervising a team of Production Operators/Executives. Maintaining the day-to-day reports/MIS regarding quality, materials, parameters etc and report to management

To troubleshoot any line down or product quality matters

Prepare a Preventive Maintenance schedule